Tracing practice for vertical lines. The first row shows ten solid vertical lines, alternating between downward and upward strokes. The second row shows ten dashed vertical lines, also alternating. The third row consists of ten dots, each with a small triangle above it pointing up or down. The fourth row consists of ten dots, each with a small triangle below it pointing up or down. The fifth and sixth rows each consist of ten dots. A vertical red line is drawn on the left side of the grid.

Tracing practice for wavy lines. The first row is a solid black wavy line. The second row is a dashed wavy line with arrows indicating the direction of the stroke. The third row is a shorter dashed wavy line. The fourth row is an even shorter dashed wavy line. The fifth row is a single dashed hump. The sixth row consists of a single dot. A vertical red line is drawn on the left side of the grid.
